

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Is this event Open to the Public?

A. Yes, this event is OPEN TO THE PUBLIC and is held on Redstone Arsenal. Even if you normally cannot get on to Redstone Arsenal, you will be able to get through the gate for this event.

Q. How do I get tickets?

A. There are no tickets for this event. You can pay at the event entrance, $20 per team, $7 per individual and $4 non participants.

Q. Who can participate in the event?

A. Anyone 18 years of age or older may participate in the field day activities. This event is geared towards ages 18 and up but we will have some limited activities in a designated area for those that are under 18 years of age.

Q. What types of field day activities will there be?

A. We will have over 25+ different activities. We will have a 135' Extreme Obstacle Course, Inflatable Joust, Slip N Slide, Water Slides, Tug of War, and More.

Q. If I am not participating in the activities, will I still have to pay a fee?

A. Yes, there will be a $4 non participant entrance fee. You will NOT be allowed to partake in any field day activities without a wristband.

Q. Can I pre-register online or do we sign up the day of the event?

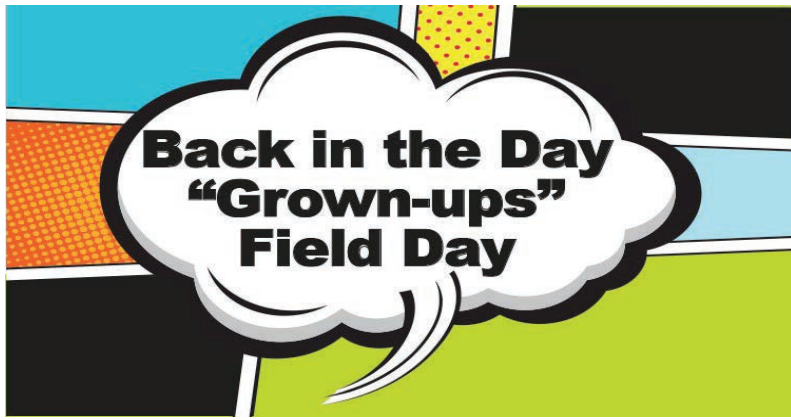

A. Yes, you can pre-register online at www.RedstoneMWR.com. If you pre-register, you are guaranteed an event day goodie bag. You can also register day of but a goodie bag is not guaranteed.

Q. Will we have to sign a waiver?

A. Everyone that is participating in the field day activities will have to sign a waiver.

Q: I'm planning on attending this event on Redstone Arsenal. Can you give me driving directions from I-65?

A: Take I-65 then take Exit 340 to I-565 E. Take I-565 E until you come into Huntsville and take the Jordan Lane exit (exit 17--also AL Hwy. 53 S.), turn right at the top of the "ON" ramp, and stay headed straight south on Jordan Lane (the name "Jordan Lane" changes to "Patton Rd." after you cross Drake Ave., but don't worry). Continue on Jordan Lane/ Patton Rd. until you reach Gate 10 of Redstone Arsenal. Please have your driver's license, registration, and proof of insurance ready for the gate guard. All adults in the car must have a picture ID.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What gate do I enter Redstone Arsenal if I don't have a Redstone badge?

A: Gate #10 Jordan Lane/Patton Road only. Gate #10 will open to the general public 30 minutes before the event.

Q: What time can I enter Redstone Arsenal through Gate #10 without a badge?

A: Gate #10 will open to "Grown-ups" Field Day traffic at 9:30 a.m.

Q: What do I need to get onto the Arsenal if I don't have an Arsenal ID/Badge or decal?

A: Each adult in the car will need a picture ID; the driver may be asked to show proof of insurance on the vehicle, and registration. Minor children do not need a picture ID. Please remember that all cars are subject to a random search.

Q: If I have a Redstone ID/Badge which gate can I enter?

A: You can enter any Redstone Arsenal Gate during their normal operating hours. Make sure that all adults in the car have a picture ID.

Q: Once I get through gate 10, where do I park?

A: There will be Redstone Arsenal Police Officers directing traffic to the FREE parking lots off of Patton Road (Jordan Lane South).

Q: Will there be a handicapped parking?

A: The handicapped parking is located to the South of the Community Activity Center. Once that area is full, there is additional handicapped parking between Heiser Hall and the Diane Campbell Conferencing Center. There will be signage to identify the parking. YOU MUST HAVE A VALID HANDICAPPED PARKING PERMIT to utilize these spaces.

Q: Where is the Back in the Day "Grown-ups" Field Day going to be held?

A: This event is held outdoors on the Redstone Arsenal Activity Field off Patton Road. It may be a good idea to apply sunscreen and bug spray before coming to the event.

Q: Can I bring a purse/bag into the event?

A: Yes, but all bags coming onto the field will be subject to a search.

Q: Are pets allowed at the event?

A: No, pets are strictly prohibited.

Q: Can I carry a pocket knife/weapon?

A: NO. ALL weapons are strictly prohibited, they will be confiscated and further action will be taken if necessary.